Management:

Rosalinda O'Neill IS CEO LifeMentor. While she invites participation by outside expertise in group and seminar programs, she is the primary counsel to leaders and individuals in one-on-one meetings. A licensed psychotherapist, Rosalinda has 30 plus years of corporate management and 25 plus years of clinical experience.

Her career started early – as a child in Miami, Florida, helping her mother raise four younger brothers. When Rosalinda was 22 she purchased a home for her mother and brothers. In the early 1970s, she served as an Administrator at the University of Miami's School of Business MBA Program. In the mid-1970s, Rosalinda became Personnel Director for Southeast Bank's Trust Company, N.A. She was promoted to this post following her success as National Recruiter and Management Training Program Coordinator for the Bank's parent company, Southeast Banking Corporation, and its lead bank. At the time, Southeast was Florida's largest independent banking institution. Subsequently, Rosalinda returned to the University of Miami as the Research Administrator for the School of Engineering and Architecture. She earned her B.B.A. in Finance from the University of Miami in 1974 and M.A. in Counseling Psychology from Loyola Marymount University in 1981.
