"We Shall Not Fail: The Inspiring Leadership of Winston Churchill"

Devoted to the memory and truth of Sir Winston Churchill, Celia Sandys is the daughter of Churchill's eldest daughter, Diana, and Lord Duncan Sandys, a member of his wartime government. Celia Sandys is a respected authority on Churchill with a well-established reputation as an expert on the life of her grandfather. Through her extensive research she has met with many political leaders who knew him throughout his long career. She is the author of five books, trustee of the Churchill Center, an international lecturer and founder of Churchill Leadership, Inc. Ms. Sandys' most recent book, We Shall Not Fail – The Inspiring Leadership of Winston Churchill, inspired her to establish Churchill Leadership Inc. With offices in London and San Francisco, they provide businesses and individuals with the opportunities to learn from the leadership principles so clearly exemplified by her grandfather: principles of motivation, inspiration and determination for success.
